STRATHCONA NEWS

LOCALS.

The regular union Thanksgiving Day church service in Strathcona will be held this year in the Presbyterian church. The sermon suitable to the occasion will be preached by Rev. J. C. Brown.

The strybol bureau reported several weeks ago in the vicinity of Strathcona was seen several days ago by M. C. Unger, of Spruce Grove, at the latter place. The bureau is apparently wandering around the country and is likely to be a sharp discussion on the question of the street railway franchise.

The Kiltier "Pond" came to Strathcona on Saturday for a special car attached to a freight train. The car was left in Strathcona and the members of the band were driven to Edmonton. They left again this morning on their special car, which was attached to the morning express.

The funeral took place yesterday from Wainwright's undertaking home of John P. Tait, aged 40 years, whose death occurred on Friday from typhoid fever.

The new hose wagon for the Strathcona fire brigade has arrived from the factory of W. E. Segrave at Walkerville, Ontario, and is pronounced perfectly satisfactory by the department.

J. R. Galvin, of Fernie, is in Strathcona to organize the coal miners of the district.

N. C. Lloyd, who spent the summer at his home in Lennox, Ontario, has returned to the city to resume his duties at the Ritchie mill. They are at present installing some new machinery and will be ready to start operations in a short time.

The Hundred Thousand Club of Calgary are arranging to run an excursion into Strathcona, reaching here at 10.30 p.m. Wednesday, October 30th. About 250 people are expected to take part and a special train has been chartered. The cars will remain in Strathcona over Thanksgiving Day, while the excursionists will spend their time between this city and Edmonton as they please.

NEW C.P.R. STATION.

The new C.P.R. station, which is nearing completion, will be 134 feet 6 inches long by 38 feet wide, and is built of brick on stone and cement foundation.

At the north end are the express offices, 21 feet by 38 feet, and adjoining is the women's waiting room, 28 feet by 15 feet, with lavatory. Next comes the hallway entrance to the business offices, with a staircase to the upper story. To the south is the agent's office, 22 feet by 15 feet, with tickets into the general waiting-room, which is 38 feet by 24 feet. To the east, and opening on to the platform, are the ticket and telegraph offices, 14 feet by 24 feet.

Stole Tickets and Ink Pads.

Los Angeles, Cal., October 28.—A burglar, thought at first to be of minor importance, has developed into a crime that will annoy the railroad officials throughout the country for months to come. The Southern Pacific station at Santa Monica was robbed last Thursday night of station tickets and ink pads, which will enable the thieves to stamp hundreds of fraudulent railway tickets. It is expected tickets will be issued to the public through dishonest brokers.

Native Say Raisuli Will Kill Him by Inches.

Tangier, October 28.—Some of Raisuli's followers have deserted him and come to Tangier. The native report of the occurrence gives as a reason for the desertions that Raisuli, in retaliation for the French interference in the steps taken to secure the release of Kaid Sir Harry Maclean, "intends to kill Maclean by inches."

Decker, vice-president of the North Western National bank, addressed the members of the chamber relative to the present financial situation. Mr. Decker said that in the event of the monetary situation, business would have to be temporarily curtailed, but he declared that there was absolutely nothing in the outlook to cause uneasiness, and felt assured the present condition was only temporary. After Mr. Decker's address the members adopted a non-confident, and the business of the exchange opened at 9.30 under practically normal conditions.

Bryan Will Not Oppose President if He Accepts Third Term.

New York, Oct. 24.—A dispatch to the Herald from Troy, N.Y., says: It can be ascertained upon unquestionable authority that William J. Bryan's candidacy for the Democratic presidential nomination is now almost wholly contingent upon what President Roosevelt will do about a third term movement.

If the President yields to the persistent demand to accept nomination for another term, Mr. Bryan will step aside and permit the leadership of his party to be located in other hands. To Nebraskaans has been sounding the third term movement since the Bryan settlement in typical orders of New York State since last Monday. He will continue his peregrinations through the state until next Wednesday, when he will start for the west with his mind virtually made up as to what will be the most expedient thing to do with reference to his own candidacy.

Receipts of wheat 385,000 bushels, an increase of percentage of lower grades. Oats market was active, and No. 3 white oats, under the stimulus of an order to make grade free of frozen wheat, jumped 3 cents per bushel from 47 to 50. The American market was about on a par with the Winnipeg for activity, though the advance was not so great. The demand was good and prices bullish, and the market jumped 1 cent for December 15, for May and 1½¢ for July in Chicago. Winnipeg October option closed at high point 1.10½ yesterday's closed 1.08½.

Lamden, Sask., Oct. 25.—H. Barnes, of Verne, met with a serious accident while threshing on the farm of John Smith, a neighbor. A wrench which he was using struck him on the forehead, sending the front portion of the skull into the brain. Medical aid was immediately summoned from Lamden and Barnes was hastily driven to the scene of the accident.

It is feared the injury to be a serious one and did all the could to alleviate the sufferings of Mr. Barnes. In the afternoon Dr. Seymour, of Regina, was summoned, and both doctors waited until it was necessary to operate for the removal of the bone. The reopening of the branch offices in Chicago was made possible by the return to work of more than 50 strikers during the last two days. TRANS-ATLANTIC WIRES IN EVERYDAY USE.

Marconi's wireless system was opened for commercial business last week between Glenelg Bay, New Scotland, and Chiffen in Ireland. Years have elapsed since the great inventor accomplished the feat of transmitting a wireless message across the Atlantic, and this day in bringing the invention into practical use denotes accounts for the moderate degree of interest aroused by the opening of the system for business a few days ago. It was almost quickly forgotten, even from so novel a discovery as the means of projecting sound through a few thousand miles of air, and the inventor who cannot bring his contrivance into everyday use directly its discovery is announced suffers a loss of prestige. The last few months have doubtless been a period of patient and arduous toil for Mr. Marconi, but just before the system was opened to the public he had to engage before practical use came to be made of the apparatus, public interest is not remarkably aroused by the announcement that wireless messages are passing daily between America and Europe. Wireless telegraphy has already been a novelty, and is counted among the commonplace.

Nevertheless, the opening of the Marconi wireless system to Atlantic traffic is one of the triumphs of the age, and according to the inventor, the system is accomplishing everything that was hoped or could be demanded of it. As yet only press messages have been handled, but these have been transmitted rapidly and accurately, and in a few days the system will be opened for private or commercial messages. The transmission is carried on without a hitch, and during the first day ten thousand words were shot across the Atlantic with no medium but the atmosphere. The messages included a large number of congratulatory despatches from scientists, statesmen and others of public note. Mr. Marconi is credited with the statement that not a single word had to be repeated. This is really a remarkable performance, and gives splendid reason for believing that trans-Atlantic wireless has passed beyond the experimental and doubtful stages, and become an accomplished and reliable factor in the telecommunication of the continents.

THE MENDACIOUS ORGAN.

For whole-souled enthusiasm lying the Mail and Empire carries the last. Whatever may be thought of the consequence or character, admiration is accorded to the persistent devotion with which that journal sets itself to the task of detecting and avoiding the truth. There is nothing perfidious in it, pervicacious, no weak yielding to the voice of conscience, no deferential bowing to the deaconess, no hesitancy about assailing the better knowledge of its readers, but a wholehearted abatement to the cause of substituting fiction for fact. Perhaps it would be unfair to say the Mail prevails pervasively when the truth would better suit its purpose, but the truth seldom suits the purpose of the Mail and Empire. Its characteristic is disregard of truth rather than hostility to truth. It simply follows a prescribed course to a pre-determined goal. When the path crosses the straight and narrow way, the Mail has no objection to travel therein for a season. But the path seldom crosses, and when it does, it makes another deflection. The Mail plumes itself on the underbrush without regrets, trusting that partisan blindness will hide from its readers the fact that it has left the trail.

A pretty fair sample of this unblinking mendacity is afforded by the Mail's treatment of the Prince Albert bye-election. As every reader knows, the unchallenged ballots gave the Opposition candidate a majority of one, but the tie-up vote turned the scale the other way, and gave Mr. Ferguson a very respectable majority. The Mail, of course, accepted the count at the close of the poll as final and correct, published the result as a Conservative victory, and editorially figured out that both the Provincial and Dominion Governments were tottering to their doom. Then, when the count of the challenged votes began to turn the scale, the Mail began to yell that the election was being stolen from Mr. Bradshaw. All this, of course, was according to programme. The election law of Saskatchewan permits any voter to be tied up, however unquestionably qualified the voter. In Prince Albert Mr. Bradshaw's scrupulous challenged voters who have been in the district for twenty years. The only conceivable reason why they should do so is that by being able to proclaim a victory on the night of election they would be able to cry "third" if the challenged voters, when counted, threw the decision against them. The decision having gone against them, the Mail performs its part by raising the cry. In doing so it proclaims its willingness to obliterate the truth and affront the better knowledge of its readers for the opportunity of venting partisan spleen and its equal willingness to endorse and applaud the district of party tactics and its contribution to the cause of electoral purity.

A CONFESSION OF FAITH.

There is hope for the most hardened after this from the Calgary Herald:

"The Liberal convention which is taking place in Calgary today is in many respects a notable event. Two years ago the Liberals of Alberta organized, and that they organized ably was demonstrated by results at the Provincial elections. They now propose to repeat their performance as far as possible in the coming Dominion campaign."

"In the Liberal convention at Alberta, a little less Edmonton, perhaps, and a little more Southern Alberta, would make the political club more savory to those in this portion of the province. We do not grudge Edmonton the capital, which it has in a well-fought contest. We do grudge Strathcona the university, not from ill-will toward Strathcona, but because Calgary was robbed of the university by a breach of faith."

"These differences and others of a similar character aside, Alberta has many reasons to be proud of her government. The ministers of the crown have worked hard to organize this new province on a sound basis. There was much to do, and much has indeed been done. The administration of a province is a matter of ordinary business rather than of politics, and the government of Mr. Rutherford is a worthy example of the political club on the way Alberta's business has so far been conducted."

PEOPLE USE THE 'PHONES.

There is every reason to believe the Alberta Government telephone exchange will be a paying concern. Vegreville is a town of less than a thousand people. The administration of a province is a matter of ordinary business rather than of politics, and the government of Mr. Rutherford is a worthy example of the political club on the way Alberta's business has so far been conducted."

ON THE SIDE.

Minneapolis Journal: The consumer finds that bread has now gone up to join milk and butter among the heavenly bodies.

The Alberta Government has appointed a Turley as provisional head of the university.

OUR RESPECTS TO EDMONTON.

Here are our compliments to the people of Edmonton. They are very better. There are few as good. They want the earth, but they deserve a large portion of it. Something is coming to them. They fight for their own and stand up for their own, but they are ready to give up their own rights if they are approached in the right way.

Edmonton had claims upon the Dominion Government of few years ago. Edmonton had a better exhibition than Calgary. When the Dominion Government had a better fair than Calgary during the last few years is a matter of opinion, which need not be discussed here. But it had it over us a few years ago, unquestionably, and claims for the fair were strong. But Edmonton gave up all claim to the Dominion exhibition and looked up with Calgary in the effort to land it. That was pretty decent for a first town to do.

And that is just the beginning of MacDonald, Senator Kierkegaard, Edmonton right on Dominion Day, for their exhibition. It has held the exhibition for the fair were strong. But Edmonton gave up all claim to the Dominion exhibition and looked up with Calgary in the effort to land it. That was pretty decent for a first town to do.

FRIEND TO FRIEND.
The personal recommendations of people who have been cured of coughs and colds by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy have done more than all else to make it a staple article of trade and commerce in a large part of the civilized world.

hibition at that date for some years, and the habit has grown into a well established custom. This Dominion day feature is a rich thing for Edmonton.

But Edmonton has graciously yielded to Calgary in this, and has given the holiday for Calgary. In other words it has not only sacrificed its own fair, but it has given up some day to be able to return the favor. Already it has made a better feeling between the two rival cities.

THE LIBERAL CONVENTION.
Calgary, Alberta.

The Liberal convention which was held in Calgary yesterday was a revelation to some people and established beyond a doubt that Alberta is Liberal to the core. Despite the fact that this is the busy season, more than 300 people from every part of the province were present. There were less than fifty delegates present at the Conservative convention at Red Deer.

One feature of the convention was the enthusiasm and unanimity. At the Liberal convention which was held in Calgary two years ago there was not the same peace and harmony prevailing. There was the sectional feud between north and south. There was also a precedent. Two ridings, Red Deer and St. Albert, sent down two sets of delegates, and there was not much unity in Calgary. But all is changed now. With such enthusiasm and such unanimity nothing can keep back the sweep of victory.

The enthusiasm seemed greater where the battle seems most doubtful. Prophets say that the Conservatives hope to have a chance in Macleod, Calgary and Red Deer. The Macleod riding was well represented. Party delegates took the train from Calgary which is in the heart of the district. The Pass river, Macleod and the northern part of the riding was well represented. The Calgary district was well represented, and as was the northern district.

The arrangements for the convention were complete. The business of the meeting was carried out with dispatch and despatch. They passed resolutions with independence and wisdom. They made arrangements for organization which were very wise.

The convention was a good one, and shows that throughout Alberta, Liberalism is in a very flourishing condition. Its real meaning is seven Liberal seats in Calgary at the next election.

Prairie Fires Along the C.N.R.

Vancouver, B.C., October 26.—Prairie fires have been raging in all directions during the past week and some damage to crops and hay has been reported. It seems impossible to ascertain the origin of the fires, although for the most part it is certain they are caused by sparks from the C.N.R. locomotives.

38 JASPER AVENUE W.

TO SASKATOON THIS AUTUMN

G. T. P. Steel will be laid that far.
Dr. Murphy Drives Over
Grade.

Dr. Martin Murphy, the government inspecting engineer, has just returned from Saskatoon. Since his last visit here he drove from Edmonton to Saskatoon on the new G. T. P. grade inspecting it. To a Bulletin representative this morning he stated the grade was in excellent condition throughout.

Questions concerning the progress of the railway Dr. Murphy stated that track laying has been almost completed for a distance 200 miles west of Portage la Prairie. At Saskatoon there are rails and ties sufficient for 60 miles, ready to be shipped east to continue the track laying.

"It is expected," he said, "that the line will be laid to Saskatoon this autumn."

Thence to Edmonton," continued the doctor, "there are about 100 miles well graded, without a gap ready to take the rails. Another month or two of favorable weather would see the grading complete to Battle River." Messrs. Foley Bros' construction force, which has been previously employed east of Battle River is now being crested on west of that point, and will be employed between Battle River and Edmonton. Consequently the large forces of construction are not being consigned to that portion of the line between Battle River and here."

Dr. Murphy reports that the work is being pushed on with will and vigor, and that good order is being kept. During his visit he has not seen one man on the works intoxicated, nor any man grumbling at his wages or treatment. In all his experience of railway construction he has never seen such good order maintained.

The substructure of the Saskatoon bridge is now ready to receive the steel superstructure, which is being delivered and men on the ground to proceed with the work. The Battle River bridge is now being erected, and a strong force of men and machinery are occupied at this point. The bridge will be completed in time to allow material to pass over for the construction of the Cleary bar bridge, if such material is not delivered at Edmonton by the C. N. R. before that time.

OHIO TOWN WRECKED.

By Explosion of Powder Magazine in Hardware Warehouse.

Lorain, Ohio, Oct. 27.—With an explosion which shook every building in the city, the powder magazine of the Lorain Hardware Company here exploded today evening, killing one man named W. J. Smith. The entire stock of hardware was blown out, and hardly a wall in South Lorain is left intact. The Methodist church is badly damaged, and commercial buildings all over South Lorain are more or less damaged.

Want Strike to End.

Milwaukee, Oct. 27.—In special executive session today delegates to the Commercial Telegraphers union convention voted to advise every conceivable means to end the strike. A committee consisting of three delegates and operators, each from the Western Union and Postal Telegraphs' company have been appointed to go to New York immediately and confer with the officials of both companies upon the settlement.

While the committee was instructed to offer every concession short of absolute surrender it denied that the power was given to call the strike off in the event of the companies refusing to compromise. The leaking out of the news of the appointment of a special committee and the intimation implied that the strike was lost, created consternation among the delegates. Officers refused to give out the returned of the committee. First Vice-President Beattie, of Washington, was elected unanimously to succeed Small in the presidency, and H. J. Horn, third vice-president, Cincinnati, was elected first vice-president. Orville H. Glenn, of Winnipeg, was chosen to succeed himself as second vice-president.

Racial jealousy between the Slovaks and Magyars is responsible for the battle. Several minor quarrels between the parties took place last evening. Most of the men present were armed and soon the killing began. The rioters were armed with knives, clubs and stones. Several women and children were wounded. The police charged the rioters and made many arrests.
